NOTES FROM THE DIRECTOR

Dear Friends,

June is here, and we are excited about many things, to name just a few:

The library begins its regular pre-COVID hours on June 1st!

Monday – Friday 9:30 AM – 8 PM,
Saturday 9:30 AM – 5 PM, and
Sunday, 1 PM – 5 PM.

The library is also ending all quarantining of materials as of June 1st, as well. This means your returns and inter-loans will occur quicker. Masks will continue to be required for the time being. Thank you for your cooperation with this procedure.

We have a new face at the library! Daaimah Buffins is our new Library Experience Specialist. She comes to us from the Riverhead Free Library, and we are so excited to welcome her home to Floyd Memorial. I would also like to welcome our new Head of Adult & Reference Services, Matthew Still. They are looking forward to meeting all of you – so please come see us!

We also have a brand-new Seed Library, and are so excited to have you come in and pick out seeds! We have many varieties, including edibles, ornamentals, and Long Island Native Plants. Each person with a library card may take out up to 4 seed packets a month! Come ask a staff member about how to check out seeds today!

We continue to seek letters of intent from members of the Orient / East Marion community who would like to serve on the Board of Trustees beginning on July 1, 2021, for a term of five years. You must be a full-time, year-round resident of Orient / East Marion. Please send letters of intent to me at the library for consideration.

Remember, libraries are for everyone! Come visit, call us, message us on Facebook, or send us an email.

FLOYD MEMORIAL LIBRARY 2020 AT-A-GLANCE

2020 was an unprecedented year for the library. COVID-19 kept us shuttered for almost 6 months. Thank you to the community for all of your support and patience this past year!

Set in New York City and Long Island, these historical mysteries offer a "refreshingly original reinvention of artistic history" featuring the artists and art milieu of the 40s, 50s and 60s. The victim in the second book, An Accidental Corpse, is Edith Metzger who died with Jackson Pollock in a car wreck in Springs in 1956... or did she?

FRIDAY, JUNE 18TH AT 7:00 P.M.

Harrison, the director of the Pollock-Krasner House and Study Center, brings insider knowledge to the lives - and demises - of her characters, real and imagined.
