

FLOYD MEMORIAL LIBRARY

NOVEMBER 2023

From the Director's Desk

It's November and there's so much to be thankful for this month!

A big thank you to our Friends Group for purchasing the comfy new lounge chairs that can be found up on the mezzanine level under the big window. It's turning out to be a very cozy spot to read a book or get a little work done on your laptop. Thank you, Friends!

Be sure to stop by the library to see all the Tiny Art that our many talented patrons have made. We'll have a "tiny" reception in the library on Wednesday, November 1st from 1-4 pm. If "regular-sized" art is more to your liking, a new exhibition by Sabina Streeter will open on Friday, November 10th (reception from 6-8 pm).

We'd like to say a fond farewell to our Children's Librarian, Miss Vicky, as she leaves us for a new opportunity at the East Hampton Library. My sincerest appreciation to Miss Vicky for all her hard work, and I hope you'll all join me in wishing her a hearty "good luck" in her new job!

Heads up! The library will be closed on Wednesday, November 15th for a Staff Development Day. (Read a recipe will still on meet) Thanks for your patience as we work together to make the library a great place for everyone!

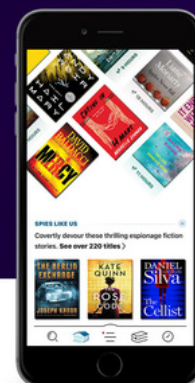

And don't forget...the building may be closed, but the digital library is ALWAYS open. Come visit us on Livebrary.com to check out eBooks and more!

Happy Thanksgiving to you and yours!

NOTES FROM THE CURATOR

Sabina Streeter, Port, 2023. Charcoal on canvas.

We're thrilled to announce the opening of our winter exhibition Port + Harbor: Preservation, Not Speculation by Sabina Streeter.

Comprising new works created especially for this show, Port + Harbor is a comparative architectural and historic profile of Greenport and Sag Harbor, two traditional maritime villages facing the pressures of modern consumerism.

The exhibition documents a tale of these two villages through paintings, drawings, collages, and photographs, sometimes using materials commonly employed in construction and architecture, such as vellum, blueprint, and plywood.

A long-time resident of Sag Harbor, Streeter has grown increasingly concerned about overdevelopment and compromises to the historic integrity of her hometown and other East End villages. She hopes that Port + Harbor will help further discussion among North and South Fork artists and residents about this crucial issue.

Please join us for the opening reception and to meet the artist on Friday, November 10th, 6-8pm.
