

FLOYD MEMORIAL LIBRARY

JUNE 2023

From the Director's Desk

Happy June! We have a lot to be thankful for this month...

Our budget votes in both school districts passed (Greenport 389 yes, 120 no; Oysterponds 112 yes, 15 no). We thank you all for turning out to vote and supporting your local library!

We also give thanks to our Friends Group for generously donating the funds to purchase new computers and furniture for our Computer Cafe. We're thrilled to offer updated (and more!) computers for patron use. Stop in and see the refreshed space today!

If you're interested in learning more about the incredible work the Friends Group does for the library, or you'd like to become a Friend of the Library, I hope you'll be considering attending their Annual Membership Garden Party on June 10th from 4-6 pm (rain or shine).

The weather is getting warmer, the flowers are blooming, and there's LOTS going on in the library this month. I hope you'll stop in and see us soon!

If you have questions or comments about the library, please feel free to contact me at 631-477-0660, ext. 8 or director@floydmemoriallibrary.org.

Library Director

NOTES FROM THE CURATOR

We're very excited about our summer exhibition Textile Tales: The Entwined Stories of Fiber Art (June 9th – August 6th). An extensive group show with a strong community focus, Textile Tales opens with a reception from 6-8pm on Friday, June 9th. We encourage all attending to wear a garment with a "tale."

We're also thrilled to announce that from 5-7pm that evening local weavers Stephanie Pinerio and Jodi Sweetbaum will weave a piece onsite. Don't miss it!

As part of Textile Tales, we've partnered with CAST on a YARNSTORMING. Colorful knitted and crocheted pieces ("tags") will decorate the exterior of the library and of CAST's Southould headquarters. It's a way of bringing the exhibition's art out into the community.

A number of makers have been knitting and crocheting pieces over the last month, but we'd love more help to create a real yarn storm. To that end, we have a few events planned:

Thursday, June 1st, 1-3pm: "Sit 'n' Stitch"; help sew smaller knitted and crocheted pieces together into larger tags

Until June 9th: The Yarnstormers' Studio is open! Drop in to create pieces on our "wish list" using our free yarn stash

Until June 9th: Kid and Teen Yarnstormers sought! See the newsletter's Children's section for more details

Saturday, June 10th: Installation day, coinciding with International Yarn Bombing Day, and Worldwide Knit in Public Day! If you'd like to help install our yarnstorm, please stop by the library from 10 am

If you require further information on Textile Tales or the YARNSTORMING, don't hesitate to contact me at sally@floydmemoriallibrary.org. Sally Grant, Art Exhibits Curator

The impact of a global pandemic has shifted work, school, and social events to online spaces, and subsequently, children today have been experiencing a very different childhood from that of their parents. The digital world provides amazing opportunities for our young people, but navigating technology is a heavy responsibility that children cannot and should not maneuver on their own. This workshop explores information and strategies for parents to consider as they parent in a digital age. Topics such as internet safety, gaming, social media, mental health, and cyberbullying will be explored.
