

FLOYD MEMORIAL LIBRARY OCTOBER 2023

From the Director's Desk

Get out the pumpkin spice because it's October! We have a great month in store for you at the library.

We'd like to say a big welcome to our visiting social worker, Angelica. Angelica will be at the library on Saturday mornings from 9:30am to 1:30pm. She can help with a variety of community resources (and more!). We're proud to partner with both Stony Brook University and the Southold Library to provide social work services for our community. Walk in or schedule an appointment with Angelica today!

A big congratulations goes to our young patron who won a Barnes & Noble gift certificate for her participation in the Suffolk County Libraries Summer Tour Raffle. All Suffolk County libraries were participating in the Summer Tour this year, so we couldn't be more pleased that one of our patrons won a prize. Many thanks to all of you who brought your passbooks in to be stamped -- it made for such a fun summer!

We've got you covered if you're looking for something spooky to read, a concert or book talk to fill your afternoon, or even a cozy space to bring your little ones for toddler time. What will you discover at the library this October?

If you have questions or comments about the library, please feel free to contact to me at 631-477-0660, ext. 8 or director@floydmemoriallibrary.org.

We're also excited to announce that Penny will share a special preview presentation of Spring Summer 2024 global fashion trends, continuing Libby's legacy of wide-ranging design inspiration.

Have you seen our display Inside the Designer's Studio: Spotlight on Libby Payne? Would you like to find out more about this "hidden" fashion designer who lived on a boat in Greenport and whose main archive is at the Fashion Institute of Technology in Manhattan?

I'd love to know more, so I'll be discussing Libby Payne's career with her daughter Penny on Saturday, October 21st at 3pm.
