This is an overview of Floyd Memorial Library’s children’s summer reading challenges, offered June 15, 2025 through August 22, 2025

The name of the game this summer is bingo – Book Bingo that is!

Bingo sheets are available in three difficulty levels, “Little Kid” (0-5), “Kid” (5-9), and “Big Kid” (9-12). We also have Book Bingo en Español!

Check in with Ms. Nina or a member of Library staff to redeem your completed Book Bingo sheets for prizes!

- Every participant who signs up for Book Bingo will be entered into a raffle drawing for extra special prizes at the end of the summer (raffle drawing will be held on August 22).
- Every Book Bingo (i.e., five squares in a row) you bring back to the library earns a chance to pick from Ms. Nina’s treasure chest.
- Every Book Bingo sheet with all 25 squares marked off earns another raffle ticket!

Bingo not your style? Try WebQuests from World Book Online, a fun research game for kids ages 7 and older!

World Book Online is an online database covering any subject you can imagine. WebQuests challenge kids to learn as much as possible about places, people, time periods, or concepts by browsing their collections, playing games, and more.

Pick up a WebQuest challenge from the Library to get started. Check in with Ms. Nina or a member of Library staff to redeem your completed WebQuest for prizes!

- Earn a ticket for a raffle drawing for extra special prizes at the end of the summer when you sign up to do a WebQuest (raffle drawing will be held on August 22).
- Every WebQuest you bring back to the library earns a chance to pick from Ms. Nina’s treasure chest.
