One of the services we provide is meeting room space for our community. We have a conference room that can be divided into two small rooms, and we have a large meeting room that can accommodate up to sixty people. These rooms are primarily used for Library programs, but they have been booked in advance by community members for things like Scout meetings or Little League sign-up, neighborhood association meetings and for tutoring. We have a simple meeting room policy and request form available on our web page through this link:
